Series: The God Who Preserves His Wayward People (Judges)

THE LORD RAISES UP A STRONG DELIVERER

Judges 13:1-25

The LORD's provision of Samson to begin His deliverance of His people in Judges 13:1-25 shows His grace toward a spiritually barren and dull people who have not even called out to Him. God is the Initiator and Source of deliverance for His underserving wayward people.

I. APOSTASY, OPPRESSION, COMPLACENCY(!) (13:1)

1. The people of Israel forsake the LORD yet again (1a)
2. The LORD gives them over to the Philistines for forty years (1b)
3. Where's the cry for deliverance?

II. GOD PROMISES HIS SPECIAL DELIVERER TO THE BARREN (13:2-7)

1. The angel of the LORD announces the birth of a savior to Manoah's barren wife (2-5)
2. Manoah's wife informs him of God's message (6-7)

III. GOD RE-PROMISES HIS SPECIAL DELIVERER TO THE DULL (13:8-23)

1. At Manoah's request the angel of God reappears and repeats his message (8-14)
2. The angel accepts Manoah's offering and they realize their visitor was God (15-23)

IV. GOD DELIVERS AND RAISES UP HIS DELIVERER (13:24-25)

1. The woman bears Samson and the LORD blesses him as he grows (24)
2. The Spirit of the LORD begins to stir in Samson (25)

STORIES FROM 2019 NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER EVENTS:

PLANES, TRAINS, AND PRAYER: INTERCESSORS ON THE MOVE

TRAINS Part 1

What is impossible with man is possible with God!

When Linda Hanratty, NDP coordinator for Tillamook County and president of Tillamook County Wide Prayer Team began planning the 2019 NDP event, she felt conflicted. She wanted an event in each of the six incorporated cities in Tillamook County, but she did not want to give up the unity of hosting people from all over the large, rural county in one place.

God directed Hanratty's heart through an ordinary circumstance: a phone call asking about a venue.

"I asked 'Where is it?' and she kept saying 'It's across the tracks, it's across the tracks!'" Hanratty said. "And that's when it hit me ... the tracks ... we could have it on the train!" And thus, what became the Sunset Prayer Train through Tillamook County was born.

The Sunset Prayer Train lasted roughly four and a half hours on the evening of the National Day of Prayer as the train full of intercessors and city leaders from across the county, travelled from one end of the county to the other and back again. While the train was northbound the first half of the trip, intercessors focused their prayers on the specific needs of local communities and leaders, then shifted to praying for Oregon and the United States while heading south on the return trip.

As the train passed through the towns along the railroad, leaders of those towns were invited to the front of their train car to be prayed over while intercessors from each community lifted up fervent prayers for specific needs in their area.

Janiece Struloeff served as an MC on a car with many of the city leaders, and was struck by the love believers showed to them, regardless of their political affiliation or location.

"Even when they were walking back to their seats, people were encouraging them and asking what their needs were, saying that they [the leaders] were called to their positions and that they were loved and supported," said Struloeff. "When they left, they were my friends. They hugged me and said, 'We hope we can do this again next year.'"

Organizers were surprised at the number of city officials who participated, and learned through conversations that they felt discouraged in their jobs from constant negative feedback or the added pressures on their families while they shouldered responsibilities in the community.

"We didn't know where they were with God, but I saw that they came empty and left full, and were totally blessed," Struloeff said. "I know they felt loved and cared for and supported."

The Spirit of the Lord did not just spontaneously show up with the group—the Author of our days was present in the planning, providing divine inspiration every step of the way. NDP landed in the middle of a 50-day prayer event for the Tillamook County Wide Prayer team, so intercessors from all over the county had been intently seeking the Lord and fervently praying in preparation for the event.

Church Directory Prayer Focus For The Week

Phone numbers can be found in the church directory so that you may call and ask for specific prayer requests.

Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving. At the same time, pray also for us, that God may open to us a door for the word, to declare the mystery of Christ. . . that I may make it clear, which is how I ought to speak.
