STORIES FROM 2019 NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER EVENTS:

PLANES, TRAINS, AND PRAYER: INTERCESSORS ON THE MOVE TRAINS Part 2

After the initial prompting from the Lord to hold the event on a train, Linda Hanratty immediately thought of a friend who owns a historic train with the Oregon Coast Scenic Railroad. She called her friend and laid out her idea to hold the prayer event on a train, wondering even as she was asking, how NDP and the county prayer team would afford such a venue.

Where God leads doors will be opened, and Hanratty was met with resounding approval and excitement. The board of the Oregon Coast Scenic Railroad ensured Hanratty they would adjust the price to make the event affordable, even going so far as to offer all three passenger train cars, a baggage car to serve as a kitchen area, and a converted train station as an event venue.

"The members of the railroad aren't necessarily Christians, and for them to come aboard and to say you can use our venue and train—that was the hand of the Lord! It made everyone marvel and say 'wow!'", said Joyce Seeley, a journalist from nearby Corvallis, whom the prayer team affectionately claims to have "adopted."

Leading up to the Prayer Train, members of the Tillamook County Wide Prayer Team attended city council meetings in all six incorporated towns in the county to formally invite the city council members, mayors and city planners to ride along and receive prayer and for them personally, and for the communities they serve.

"Everybody just caught the vision as a fun activity as well as a great prayer opportunity," said Hanratty.

Adults were the primary participants, and youth from a local church baked goodies for people to enjoy during the Sunset Prayer Train and served them throughout the ride.

Sessions of prayer and exhortation were interspersed with live worship. Bob and Caroline Brown, members of the Tillamook County Wide Worship Team led songs on each of the train cars, playing twice in each car by the time the train rolled to the final stop.

"It was really fun to see the people enjoying themselves, clapping, laughing and singing," Caroline Brown said.

Part 3 next week.
