STORIES FROM 2019 NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER EVENTS:

PLANES, TRAINS, AND PRAYER: INTERCESSORS ON THE MOVE TRAINS Part 3

During the train ride, participants passed around “God Cans” to each table or section of seats. The God Cans were tin cans filled with notecards containing specific prayers for the community with each card having data from government sources or reliable nonprofits on topics like suicides and test scores in the school system. There were also sample prayers and scriptures to help guide the prayer time as well.

“I want to ignite intercession for all believers and get tools for the ones who don’t know how to pray,” Hanratty said. “They can just read the cards! And for those who do know how to pray, they can use the cards as a catalyst for a whole new realm of joy.”

Inside the God Cans city leaders could add prayer requests specific to them or their city, and intercessors would lift those up before the Lord as well.

“The love you felt on this train was just a different experience than having a meeting in a room over coffee,” said Joyce Seeley.

Moving through the county and being in unity with fellow believers made the Sunset Prayer Train a powerful and unique experience – and the Spirit of the Lord kept moving well after the event ended.

“Every single person was filled with joy. This is a major outcome, because joy is spreading from the train and to whomever they [the participants] talked to,” said Pam Neighbor who assists the state NDP coordinator. “Christians and non-Christians get the sense that God’s people can get together, be filled with love and peace, and make His body known as something inviting and wonderful to be involved with. That is a great and wonderful fruit, and it is spreading throughout our state and beyond.”

Even just a few weeks after the event the Tillamook County Wide Prayer team is already seeing results in the community of their prayers and budding joy. Since, they have formed a relationship with city leaders, and a local housing authority contacted Linda Hanratty for the prayer team to come and pray for them.

While it seems an impossibility for government officials to ask for prayer in a day and age where the separation of church and state is so prominent an issue ... for a group with limited funding to rent out a historic event venue ... and for so many believers from various churches to gather and pray in unity - with God, all things are possible! The Tillamook County Wide Prayer team submitted themselves to the Lord’s will and saw a mighty work done in their county, and they are continuing to carry the work forward.

“I’m hoping humanity enters and that we are engaging in the relationships with the people we are praying for,” Hanratty said. “I really feel like we have just hit the tip of the iceberg with how prayer can change our county and state. Intercession is not a thing for a few people, it’s a gift from God to all believers.”

Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving. At the same time, pray also for us, that God may open to us a door for the word, to declare the mystery of Christ. . . that I may make it clear, which is how I ought to speak.
